Great and Useful Invention.
No more Morbidity for want of Water.
Sure wealth to Estancieros
By the Robert Apparatus.
Being notorious the immense injury occasioned by the scarcity of water during the summer months, that afflicts the camps of Buenos Ayres, I have determined to dedicate to the Estancieros an apparatus of my simple and infallible for procuring as much water as they may require.
120 litres per hour (it seems fabulous) is procured with my apparatus, without fear of at any time its getting out of order.
The machine is worked by one horse, and in one day's work can give 1,440 Bordalesas; that is to say, sufficient water for 20,000 head of cattle.
By these figures can be calculated the immense advantages gained by its use.
Another advantage is the facility of putting it together and taking it to pieces, so as to be able to transport it to any place where it may be necessary to use it, either for effecting purposes or others.
GREAT MODIFICATION.
I have made an improvement in my Apparatus, applying a new system, which reduces the necessary force two-thirds, giving it at the same time more rapidity.
Those interested can see it at Calle Moreno, No. 346 (Hueracuda, Paris).
One week's inspection of the Apparatus will prove to them the superiority of it over any other. ROBERT.

The Custom-House Politicians.

We have seen with much pleasure that the "Nacion Argentina" has called President Mitre's attention to the scandalous abuse of allowing the clerks in the custom house to mix so prominently in politics. In no country in the world would such conduct be tolerated. The paid employées of the Government should be its staunchest supporters, and if allowed to mix in politics should lend their votes and influence in support of the Government which pays them.

The Duke of Newcastle, who is Minister for the Colonies, has written a letter on the subject of public employées writing in the papers. The 'Tribuna' no doubt will pooh pooh the Duke's opinion on such a subject, but we think if President Mitre would pay more attention to the Duke's views and less to the Tribuna's nonsense, he would escape a great many of the difficulties which unfortunately beset the present National Government.

We opine that public employées should have no vote at all, nor should under any circumstance be permitted to mix in politics, but if they are allowed to vote, they should certainly be taught the consequence of voting against the Government which employs them. The following is the Duke's letter, which some of our readers no doubt will relish.

"Sir,—My attention has been called to the course taken by public servants in certain colonies in connecting themselves with newspapers, either by writing or contributing articles to them, and I have to convey to you the following instructions for your guidance, which are founded upon rules and principles laid down by some of my predecessors in particular cases occuring in former years, and it is plainly inconsistent with the retention of his place by any paid officer under the Government of a colony to be the editor of a newspaper, or to take any active part in the management of it. While I am glad that the colonies should possess each means of diffusing information, I cannot but feel at the same time that it is important for a public servant to take any part in conducting a newspaper in which political matters and the measures of the local Government are discussed without being placed in a position towards those under whom he serves quite incompatible with the proper discharge of his duties. I do not object to public servants publishing articles signed with their names upon subjects of a scientific nature provided they abstain from any further connexion with the newspaper than what is implied by contributing such articles, and especially from writing on questions which can properly be called political, or discussing of its officers. I should also consider it improper for any public servant to continue to furnish any articles whatever to a newspaper which, by constantly or persistently attacking the Government, should habitually exceed the bounds of fair and temperate discussion. In such a case I should expect all public servants to abstain from contributing any articles whatever to its columns. I consider the rule that all articles whatever written by public servants should be signed by them, the best security against abuse of the privilege. It must, therefore, be distinctly understood that the system of anonymous articles should be brought home to one of them, or if in articles bearing their signature, they should discuss any political subject, or the measures of the Government, or the official proceedings of its officers, I should consider it my duty to direct the removal of the person so offending; since, if the writing of such articles were permitted, it would clearly destroy that harmony and mutual confidence among those who are employed by the local Government which are absolutely required for the due administration of its affairs."

EDITOR'S TABLE.

There is a story current through town that a sort of row has occurred in Cordova between the two political factions which divide that city. The National Government, we learn, has received no advices whatever of the matter, but a passenger arrived by the Iavon asserts it for a fact, and states the Cordovan Government found great difficulty in suppressing the riot. The military were called out, one or two were killed and several wounded.

There is a good deal of talk about two boat loads of uniforms which, it is stated, left Buenos Ayres last Thursday for Fray Bentos. It is asserted that the Argentine war steamer 25 de Mayo towed the boats up, and that the jefe politico of some one of the departments along the Uruguay has officially notified the Buenos Ayrean Government of the fact, and has also several witnesses to prove it. As not so directly in violation of our assumed neutrality, if proven, will lead, no doubt, to serious complications. President Mitre, if this story is true, ought not to wink at such an act, and we hope to see our brave and distinguished Admiral Murature called to a strict account about the matter.

We hear that the last of the Chacho's chiefs, a fellow named Puebla, has been captured in the desert, and is now on his way to Buenos Ayres. If he is punished for creating riot and disturbance in the provinces, why are the persons who caused all the row at the Merced and Piedad Churches allowed to escape? Fiat justitia ruat cælum.

The National Government has received news, we understand, of another Indian invasion in the province of Santa Fe. The savages numbered over one hundred, and captured a troop of bullock carts. The Government troops marched after them, but with the usual success. The invasion took place in the direction of Fruyle Muerto.

The "Ferro Carril" of Rosario states that immense Irish sheep farms are crossing the Arroyo Medin with their flocks, and settling down in Santa Fe, where grass is plenty and land cheap. The Montevideo settlement facts and advises others to follow their example.

Also some paper states that the resignation of Governor Cullen would cause a serious loss to that province, and calls upon him to withdraw his resignation, and serve out his full time. A correspondent of the 'Standard' in Rosario states that loss is known in that city about the Entre Rioro disturbances and Governor Cullen's resignation, that from Paraná there is not one word about Heron and his rebellion.

Talk about hot weather, the busiest man in town about ounces and patacones is our friend Paleron Huergo. Neither Hutton nor Gough ever had half the business to transact that our friend in the Hacienda office has to go through every week. The price of patacones at the custom-house is 72 daily morning at daybreak is fixed at 16 92, seventy-two to an ounce, and from Friday morning until Saturday night 28 50, sixteen to an ounce.

As an instance of the justice of the remarks of the "Nacion Argentina" respecting the alarming state of politics in that local custom-house, the following we may state that the colored man who was killed at the Piedad was a custom-house officer, and was obliged to attend the elections, being threatened by some of the custom-house clerks, that if he did not go to the elect ons, he would lose the employment of his in custom house. We call attention to this case, as we have heard it on the best authority. We may also add that respecting his widow and family, disclosures have been made to us which we decline publishing at present—there is something in it in the state of a counmark." Government ought to appoint a commission to report on the present state of custom-house politics, as it is a heavy municipal taxes—we suppose we have a right to know what is done with the money.

It speaks highly for our Italian fellow citizens, the fact that so large a sum has been subscribed amongst them for so meritorious a purpose. The Italian Government we understand has also contributed most munificently towards the building fund.

The Italian hospital will when finished be one of our principal city buildings It is however a little out of the way, and would possibly have been better located in a more central position. As to its great utility none can question it. The Italian population in this city and the suburbs is estimated at over fifty thousand.

THE GREAT CLUB MEETING.

On Christmas Day one of the largest and most influential public meetings ever held in this city took place: more than fifteen hundred of the leading men of Buenos Ayres attended. The 'Club del Pueblo' has proved one of the greatest triumphs for Mitre. General Hornos, who is the President of the club, was unable to attend, owing to indisposition, but the business of the meeting was not thereby retarded. The committee named consists of men of wealth and position amongst us; and we are happy to say that men who for years have kept aloof from politics have come forward on the present occasion boldly to support the National Government.

PRESIDENT.
General D. Manuel Hornos.

VICE-PRESIDENT.
D. Jose M. Gutierrez.

COMMITTEE.
Don Manuel C'Campo,
Emilio Saavedra,
Jose G. Lezama,
Juan Chassaing,
Alvaro Barros,
Miguel Martinez,
Nicolas Avallaneda,
Marcelino Vgarte,
Mariano Billinghurst,
J. B. Molina,
Jaime Llavallol,
Anacarsis Lanus,
Jose Marcos Morales,
Adolfo Peralta,
Eduardo Amadeo,
Jose M. Abarño,
Jorge Newbold,
Ricardo Lavalle,
Wenceslao Acevedo,
Antonio Bilbao la Vieja,
Federico Garrigos,
Juan Cobo,
Carlos Paz.

When we see such a list as the foregoing, we certainly wish to know what President Mitre has to fear from the Tribuna opposition. Sr. Vgarte made a splendid speech at the meeting, explaining its objects. He said—"Our adversaries call us conspirators and reactionists. Yes, we are conspirators, but we conspire in the broad daylight—we conspire in the presence of all the editors—we conspire for peace and progress. We are called reactionists, because we seek to restore law and order—because we labour to restore the liberty of voting, which at present ovenwveil by brickbats and revolvers. We wish to restore true suffrage. We conspire to preserve the integrity of the nation, because we believe the separation of Buenos Ayres would lead to endless war—because we believe the separation of Buenos Ayres would have to begin by the murder of the author of San Martin, who was not General of Buenos Ayres, but of the Argentine Republic; denounced Rosas, and Urquiza, Rivadavia, who was not President of Buenos Ayres, but of the Argentine nation. We conspire, therefore, to save the Republic, because we are fully convinced that the separation of Buenos Ayres would be contrary to everything that is great in our history. For these reasons we have published our programme, and we have come forward now to support and maintain the present Government. In the name of the Club del Pueblo I declare the great Club del Pueblo instated."

Dr. Vgarte resumed his seat amidst tremendous applause.

Dr. Obligado then came forward and made an eloquent speech.

The meeting then dissolved.

There cannot be the slightest doubt as to the importance of this club meeting. Every one sees now what are the opinions of the merchants and leading men in the city. We begin to tremble for the 'Tribuna' and 'Nacional.'

LATEST FROM ENTRE RIOS

EVENTS OF LA PAZ

We learn that the 'Gefe Politico,' of La Paz, has summoned the Criminal Judge of that Department, to institute a full investigation into the recent scandals at that place, and to undertake the prosecutions arising from these disclosures. This step has been taken in conformity with the instructions of General Urquiza, who has obtained for that purpose an edict from the Provincial Chambers of Justice.

The order to rally on arms was sent forth on Saturday, the 19th, and on Monday, the 21st, in spite of the storm experienced these two days, almost the entire militia of the Uruguay was upon horseback awaiting its chief.

The same has been the case in the adjoining departments. Abandoning the cares of the harvest, the whole militia have come forward, without a moment's delay, to tender their services for the support of their Government.

While General Urquiza has marched with the division of the centre, Col. Navarro will cover the flight of the river Paraná; and Colonel Segui, with the division of Concordia, will cut off all retreat by the Uruguay. The National Government, and the Governors of Corrientes and Santa Fe, have been requested to co operate for the apprehension of fugitives.

General Urquiza started alone from his quinta of San Jose, and on arriving at Bergara, found his forces assembled. He was expected to arrive at La Paz, the 24th, and has, doubtless, ere this, dispersed every vestige of resistance, and captured Beron and his corps of malefactors.

LAMENTABLE ACCIDENT

On Saturday evening, we regret to say, a fatal accident occurred in the Villa Mercedes, to a very respected Irishman, named John Dugnc.

It appears Mr. Dunne was driving a cart, from Mr. Lowe's estancia, with a woman and child in it, and that by some mistake he drove up to what he thought was the gate of the rodeo. As it was dusk, poor Dunne did not perceive, until he came on the posts, his mistake; then he tried to turn the horses suddenly, but the motion of the leader was so quick, that the cart gave a jerk, threw Dunne out, and the wheel passed over him. He died instantaneously. Meanwhile, the horses broke away with the cart, and were making straight for a steep barrance, or cliff overhanging the river, when, by the greatest good luck, an Irishman, who was minding sheep, and the husband of the woman in the cart, providentially ran to their assistance, and stopped the horses; had it not been for this, nothing could have saved the poor woman and child from sure destruction. The deceased, John Dunne, was about 40 years of age, had resided in this country some 11 or 12 years, where, by untiring industry, he had secured an independent fortune. He was a native of Milltown, county Westmeath, Ireland, and was buried in the Villa Mercedes on Sunday evening. R.I.P.

LATEST FROM GILES

(From a Correspondent.)

The best camp to the South of Pirans, it is superior to a l within 20 leagues of it. I was on Mr. John Duffy's estancia it is splendid. Mr. Murray, the Widow Kenny's, and Mr. Bell's, are also very fine; Spring's is middling, and I am trying to rent land close to Archey's for myself, if I can come to terms with the owner. Archey's camp is good also. I do not wish to give you bad news o the sheep farmers here, but the fact is, they cannot be worse. From Giles to San Antonio de Areco, the losses are great; the camps are washed of all the dry 'cardos' and clover. Since 1839 I have not seen so bad a time. Supplies are all bumbugged this time, I hear. Giles is the last camp a man should live in. Town's camp is splendid and also Casero. I was out at the Rincon yesterday: the lagunes are full of water. One of our countrymen is paying Pesos 950 dollars per month in advance, for a place for 6 000; he had no remedy as his sheep were very far gone. All the people from the lagunes are out the Areco side of the Paso. Sheep are plenty on Saturday here, but that is of little use when there is no grass in the camp. Belcher's sheep all past out to-day; Pelfort also. We have made up 13,000 sheep, 7,0 0 of them belong to Mr. Wheeler. It is the wonder of all how you will be round the 6,000 sheep. Every one here will have to fly in three or four days outside. Excuse this note, as the sheep are running fast.

Yours, J. M.

MAJOR RICKARD

Major Rickard arrived at Mendoza on the 3rd inst., and forthwith employed himself in assembling for a road to convey to the Tontal the army of mor mously loaded waggons, which must have already reached Mendoza. His Excellency, Governor Gonsalez, lent him active co-operation, and a meeting of carriers was to take place on the 4th, to determine the carriage, and the rate per load. The Major proceeds to Barrial, and thence to Calingasta, we deemed practicable. Major Rickard's letter goes to show that his reception by the Governor and the principal inhabitants has been very flattering.

Now, a few days hence, the chimneys of the smelting foundries will be seen smoking on the slopes of the Tontal, and industry thereby take a new direction.

LA ZINGARA.

Mr. Henry A. Green has sent us the following letter, signed by the passengers of the 'La Zingara.' The style is so flowing and classic, that we doubt not the distinguished shipbroker will be proud to see it in print. Possibly Mr. H. A Green, in his travels last year visited that little stone, or stones, under which the unequalled Prometheus shed his genius.

We the undersigned passengers per ship La Zingara who embarked for Montevideo on 25th October, 1868, from Liverpool, having arrived safely at our destination, join unanimously in returning our sincere thanks to Capt. Stocks and his first officer Mr. Dawcns for their kind, humane, and gentlemanly attention, and we only regret that it does not lay within the sphere of our abilities to return an acknowledgment equal to their merits and our desires; for on all occasions, especially of emergency and when imminent danger from the contention of the elements menaced, they were to be seen contending against it with fortitude and heroic resolutions, and on sunny occasions Captain Stocks himself performing the duties of his officers when he saw it required, so that on the whole we not only deem but hail him, and also Mr. Dawnes, well adapted and efficient to procure the good wishes and respect of their passengers, which this but too feebly tends to show.

STATE OF THE PROVINCES.

It is always with sorrow that we commence our review when we cannot give a favorable account of the state of the country, and its progress towards an era of peace and prosperity.

This country has a future so inevitably great and happy, that we who live in it in these days, when the elements of good and ill are so fine minded [illegible] by turn gains the ascendancy, are apt to be disheartened, and despair of a country who is, with all the elements [illegible] prosperity within its reach, prefers anarchy to order, war and strife to peace, military measures to constitutional ones, and the indulgence of petty and contemptible ambitions to high and patriotic measures.

For some time we had entertained hopes that that the National Government would have to yield to the tremendous pressure exercised by the prodigious press of Buenos Aires, and [illegible] in a war with the neighbouring Republic of Montevideo.

Even the Government organ of high repute ridiculed the ostensible neutrality of the Argentine administration; has never been able to dispute its evident hostility to the revolutionary chiefs, who with volunteers and funds from Buenos Aires, commenced the disgraceful civil strife which for nine months has paralized the great country of the River Plate.

The partiality of the Portenos to Blanco has however their only motive for desiring a continuance of the civil war.

Montevideo as a country, is superior in many respects to Buenos Ayres, and is being rapidly filled with an excellent European immigration. The port is free, and the meeting foundation of all other side of the Pl ta, and what is still more serious for Buenos Ayres the native merchants of Montevideo, much more liberal and liberal than those of the Argentine capital, are bidding fair to carry off the commerce of the greater part of the riverside.

This right has been awarded by a liberal policy on the part of Buenos Ayres towards the provinces but instead of this simple proceeding, the latter have resorted to civil outrages and troubles from the former. The result is evident. Two years of peace have put many of the provinces to rights since the pernicious wrath they wrought before the last revolution.

The evident prosperity of Montevideo is a daily reproach to the chiefs of Buenos Ayres, and this principle more even than of arresting public industry, or of a reaction unless active and intelligent measures from those of their opponents, they prefer to resort to acts of violence and bloodshed.

A dead ass tells no tales, and again many wish us half chopped off every certain to be put to flames.

I stood therefore of merely and also cowed many tribes with Montevideo for commercial supremacy. Buenos Ayres fancies that the destruc ion of her Carthage might be the shortest way to rid herself of a troublesome rival.

However, it is fortunate that the National Government appears to respect the opinion of the great majority of Argentines, who are decidedly averse to a war with our neighbor, notwithstanding the passion of the capital makes it out the contrary.

We have the consolation to be able to hope, that we have painted the dark side of the picture.

The "Herrera-carrill" which for two years has combated alone the dangerous ideas of men in Buenos Ayres, whose popular organs are the Tribuna and Nacional, has been, to the surprise of every one, reinforced by the Nacion Argentina, the most respectable native paper in the capital, and the organ of the administration.

This fact gives very far to prove that the seeds of intolerance are upheld by the most profligate of the Buenos Ayrean press, the Tribuna, and whose disciples in the provinces have scandalized civilization with their foul deeds, is warring with public opinion.

In one of the most powerful articles which we remember to have seen in the native press, and which bore the evidence of being written "in high quarters," the Tribuna and its clerks are denounced in the strongest terms as being the authors of the late war and its ignominious war with Montevideo, as being the causes of all the disasters that have afflicted, and the misery now afflicting the country. That by their obstinate, shortsighted ness and savage propensities, the epidemic and of being united in applying political forces according to the desire of the National Government, are divided into two bands, the dominant one inflicting the most unbridled tyranny on the other.

This article, which is nothing more than a recension of what the Herald carrill has been preaching for a year past, has a most important significance coming from a high quarter, and gives warning that it must be answered as well as constitutional policy, will allow, for the observed throughout the country.

The municipal election, as preliminary to those for members of Congress in Buenos Ayres, have been nothing but ridiculous farces, got up by the Tribuna party. Some people have been killed; a great many wounded. But even this is a favorable sign, as it indicates that there is already a strong party in the capital rebelling against the chauvinist tyranny exercised by a knot of unprincipled men.

The behavior of the provinces, with the exception of Cordoba and Catamarca, is in a state of the quiet.

In Cordoba the wretched strife between the two factions of the liberal party (for only in name), has filled the town with disorder. There have as yet occurred no acts of violence on it Buenos Ayres, and, nothing serious is expected, as is evidenced by the withdrawal of the militia out troops from Cordoba.

The best security which exists in that place for the prevention of acts of violence, is the existence of a great third party, the federals, or Rosas, who, prescribed for two years since the battle of Pavon, are sought and flattered by these who some time back exhibited and murdered them.

Notwithstanding the apparent calm which reigns in the city, the province of Cordova is slowly improving its agriculture and its commerce. Its crop of wheat this year will be very favorable, and its clip of wool will amount to a large figure.

In Catamarca the affairs have reached the climax prognosticated by the journals. The Governor at his throne is seized of the forces of legality, and has ordered execution of political adversaries in an epoch of peace, without the pretense of a trial.

The national court of justice one of which is established in each of the provinces, has been obliged to suspend itsactions, and the judge has retired to Tucuman.

The two members of Congress have also had to leave the province, and some representation seems to have been impracticable, and it is feared that bolder measures can be taken to restrain this aberration in my liberal government, either Mitre can send his soldiers, if they will execute more innocent people, or the town will rise, and we shall have a repetition of the massacre of San Juan in 1863, when the Governor, seven household, perished by the hands of an infuriated populace; and the federal Verdad, but no war, we can believe, nearly as vicious as Mr. Mitre's liberal.

There may, as we have said before, are principles of the Tribuna clique of Buenos Ayres, the members of which are the Thugs of the Argentine Republic, and we until the Government in Buenos Ayres succeeds in wresting from them the war which they have illicitly wielded, for such a length of time.

The rest of the province are enjoying more or less the blessings of peace.

Mendoza, with its new governor, who is for unutterly liberal in principle as well as in name, is rapidly rising from its ruins.

San Juan free at last of four of its enemies from the freebooters of Rojo, is dedicating all her energies to the development of her extraordinary mineral and agricultural wealth.

La Rioja is enjoying the quietness of a corpse in the tomb, and to make the comparison more ex ct, there are no warring worms to revel in the feast.

Tucuman, that paradise of the Argentine Republic, where plains of sugarcane are fringed by magnificent forests, is among the first of the provinces of the interior, which appears to be recuperating from the effects of the late war. One hundred and seventy five tons of produce have been received in Rosario from Tucuman within the month, and one hundred and fifty of mere articles has been despatched for the same place.

Salta and Jujuy are quietly progressing, according to the last accounts, which take as much time reaching us in the Litoral, as the news from China.

Four hundred men are working 24 feet of water, with about 200 tons of produce, have successfully made the voyage from Salta, in Bolivia, by the river Vermejo to the Parana. The owner states that in no part of the river he found less than three feet of water.

The province of Santa Fe is progressing nicely. Its commerce is being much prejudiced by the war in the neighbouring republic, and by the hostility of Buenos Ayres, which foolishly looks on Rosario as a sort of Rival, and fancies that by destroying the commerce of this town it will increase its own.

This is another evidence of the stupidity as well as wickedness of the clique in Buenos Ayres, which has opposed every measure of the National Government for the benefit of the provinces.

Entre Rios has got over its fever fit, and everything goes on pretty well there. Urquiza, who foolishly took part of Mitre, and it is by no means improbable that the latter will soon want all the support of the former, in the meantime now goes with the loyal National Government and the fanatical Thug party in the capital.

The province of Corrientes favorable for this province, although very much the contrary in Buenos Ayres, where the drought has burnt up the grass and the wheat.

In Santa Fe the wheat and corn crop will be very large, and the yield of wool, fifty per cent. more than last year.

Many sheep farmers are removing their flocks from the province of Buenos Ayres to the rich plains of Santa Fe, and everything promises that this province will ere long be densely populated, and in a flourishing condition. Its great railroad will alone suffice to bring about such a favourable result.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Ugly Business.—I here have been certain disclosures made respecting the enlisting of foreign soldiers for the Argentine Government, which if they are true were unprepared for. It appears that the editors of the 'Tribuna' have some small interest in the business. We dislike personalities, but really think that newspaper editors who make so much out of a Government should be the last to attack it.

Don Quixotism Renown.—This wealthy Argentine has at last made his political deb-ût. The 'Tribuna' asserts that it is because he wants Art. 28 to be passed in Congress. A matter which, to his motives may be, we are glad to see him on the right side. He proclaims himself a supporter of the National Government and a conspirator for peace, law, and order.

The Club Libertad—This club, we understand, is all ready to hold its meeting, if it has only find a President. Will nobody act?

Police Secret.—It was rumoured the other day that some great Government dignitary was about to be arrested for swindling. It appears, however, that the story was without the slightest foundation. The clerks in the Policia publicly deny it.

Flores—This celebrated revolutionist has been occupied for the last few days in making a thorough inspection of his men which he received the other day from Buenos Ayres. Flores states that now he is ready to fight, and proposes to march on Montevideo. It is easy to see that Flores is no Irishmen. Generally speaking, when Irishmen prepare for a fight they pull off their coats, and when they have got the rowers, they put their jackets on. We hope to see Holiday, or, as he is better known, Olaj, giving these wellbehaved rebels a wholesome lecture.

Christmas Eve.—On Christmas Eve a gang of politicians paraded the streets shouting out 'Viva Mitre! Viva Libertad!' 'Viva Buenos Ayres Liberal!' We are told that they were all well-dressed young men.

Petit accident in Quilmes.—We regret to hear of a sad accident which occurred in Quilmes, to the son of Sr. Fernandez. It appears that the child got on the spokes of the coach, which had just arrived at the house, the horses moved slightly, and began to go on, the child fell, and unfortunately his leg got between the spokes of the wheel. Of course, the leg was smashed to atoms, and the child died immediately.

High Wages—The contractors on the Western Railway complain that they cannot find workmen enough to go on with the works, the majority of the men employed having left for the chacras, where they earn 40 dollars per day.

National Debt—All parties having claims against the old National Government, are notified to present their claims to Dn. Juan Cruz Ocampo, whose office is at last opened.

The Opera—On Saturday night Madame Briol appeared in the favourite opera of 'Hernani.' As the night was a benefit night for the Italian Hospital, which had been inaugurated that day, there was not a seat in the theatre unsold. Madame Briol is said to have been better in 'Hernani' than in 'Rigoletto.' We should'like to hear her in 'Traviata.'

Imperial Association—Messrs. Altgelt, Ferber, and Co., have ordered Mr. Nestar to sell, on the 31st inst., some splendid property situated to the north of Rosario as a sort of Rival, and fancies that by destroying the commerce of this town it will increase its own.

Illegal Postage—One friend at home will hardly credit the enormous postage charged on letters to Montevideo. We are told that the postage charged by the Mersey yesterday was seven dollars, besides the Argentine postage.

Accident.—We regret to record a lamentable accident which occurred yesterday at the Italian Hospital. An Italian gentleman fell from the second storey, hurting himself severely.

Supplemental Mail—A supplemental mail will be sent to Montevideo to-day, by the outward Dove. Letters will be received at the British Consulate up to two o'clock, pm.

Hitting the mill on the Head—On yesterday a great crowd assembled in Calle Defensa, to see an individual hitting a mill on the head. As the man, for performance of sound a vow, had attempted to nail his own hand to the wall of the Santo Domingo Church, people assembled to see how he could manage it. A nail was driven and walked off the bleeding sailor to the hospital.

The De Lases—On Friday and Sunday evenings next, the celebrated De Lave family will make their appearance in the Pleasure Garden of the Plaza Peroye. The price admission is two dollars, which, we think, will gain for these truly wonderful acrobats an increased popularity.

The Mersey—owing to the extremely low state of the river, we understand the Mersey was unable to leave at her appointed hour.

Locusts—We regret to say, that the locusts have again made their appearance in the camp, and are eating up everything. In some parts they come in clouds.

RENAN'S WORK

Sr. Redactor del Standard.

En nombre de nuestro gran cesus, debo agradecer a nuestro noble hermano la generosa franqueza con que interpreta su prestigio sobre su simpatica fisonion de estrecha asociacion, para dirigirle la palabra destinada a poner a raya la mentira filosofica, que habia de ser en breves momentos devorada por la atmosfera, que envuelve la alta razon cristiana: esa razon cristiana, que a su vez y con una voluntad unica y figerosamente poderosa, preserva y fortifica la civilizacion humana. ¿Qué decian al hombre moderno, si este quitara lo difundido de la Biblia? ¿Qué seria de la vida sin las bellas moralidades brillando sobre las tumbas de los siglos pasados y entre los martires del error antiguo, enseñando a los ateos combates de la historia? ¿La tenemos? ¿Se qué entonces nos diria el sabio de la fe? ¿Qué apoyo y qué punto de partida que ¡ha el pensamiento humano; qué cosa es a su sensibilidad! Pero no es mas que ¡guerra! ¡Sobre qué quieren pretenden desconocer la formosa sociedad al hombre de la fe del mundo, con el cristianismo de la conscion eleva y reconcilia de nuestro ser! Con la divinidad de Jesus, al precepto de la abnegacion, la caridad, la fe en la virtud y del sacrificio, que por superior las mas veces a la fluqueza del hombre, reclusan a este, a menos de vencer en la lucha.

Es necesario no cejar en la lucha, y mantener a los herederos de tanta dicha y de tanta atraccion seguros, con buena conciencia de tanta verdad y todo luz, y guardianes la decencia que regenera la sociedad en la edad de la fe, en medio de tantos progresos, y mayores y mas desenvueltos los pueblos por su divina fundador, que promete no morir en ellos hasta el fin de la consumacion del siglo — Pues ella no faltan, a echan y pisoteo con prodigiosa actividad, habilidad, y mucho mas con prodigiosa con la energia inherente a la fuerza de oposicion, que encuentra nuestra santa doctrina, y que sabe sacar de ella sobre las sociedades civilizadas, como sobre los bajos sentidos de la vida humana.

Gracias, pues, mi noble hermano. Vd. ha sonido de nuestro mundo, y os mandante que en ella nos tierra tantos vasos escollos a como en Cristo que vio en ellos a sus discipulos en alas de su fe, y tuvo bajas para alimentar a ellos. Dr. Daniel O'Connell, irlands, como Polonia, la sido rengida por el sagrado de los verdugos, y la sandio en un alma de gigante, que hizo libre todas las amarguras y todas las suertes winanas y la miseria del martirio.

La replica de Vd. nos ha dado medida de tal valor, porque sabe reconocer en el, conservacion, amorria y cuchicia. Nunca he publicado contener las lagrimas y el entusiasmo en presencia de la prolongada pasion de ese pueblo generoso y fiel y y ¡ entusiasmo, que cito ver, en medio de nuestra fe y darse pronto; le agradezco su noble actitud y su generosa cooperacion para neutralizar la voz de un Hijo ten distinguido por la variedad que lo nombra, como por la perversidad de su trabajo.

CALLE LARGA DE BARRACAS,

[Tres Esquinas.]

The Directors of this Institution has the honor to inform the Parents of his Pupils that the II Idays will begin on the 24th inst. and not till the 5th of January next.

The English Grammar School presents all the elements of a British Institution, at the greatest advantage for the Pupils of this locality pursuant it from the day of its foundation.

A sound Commercial and Semi-Classic Education, strict discipline, united with the kind st treatment, have produced their beneficial effects, and afforded these Parents, who have place their confidence in the Director of the English Grammar School, the most perfect guarantee of the principles and the excellence of the method which are set forth in this Establishment.

Extensive Gardens, Gymnastics and Cold Baths are so combined as to offer the best means of invigorating the body and securing the health of the Pupils

The want has long been felt of an establishment wherein the frugal and laborious citizen might deposit his savings, so as to incur no risk, and reap at the same time a good return.

This institution is calculated to answer such a purpose extending the benefits of the establishment to even the humblest classes.

Public attention is, therefore, specially called to the manner of subscriptions, and the inversion of funds, according to the rules of the association.

The PREVISORA ARGENTINA will receive subscriptions as follows:

1st. On one's own life, in shares of $5 silver each. These subscriptions liquidated at any time, at the subscriber's time and option.

2nd. Without loss of capital by death of the insurer. Subscribers will be entitled to compound interest on their subscriptions and the proportional interest be settled by the death of other shareholders in their Class, whose capital, however is returned.

3rd. With loss of capital and interest by insurer's death. All shareholders of this class shall gain compound interest on their subscriptions, besides a proportional part of the capital saved by the death of all who die in their Class.

All these subscriptions may be paid weekly, monthly, quarterly, half yearly, or yearly.

The capital of the Company shall be invested only in landed property (fincas), and with the greatest security.

The Board of Inspection, composed of subscribers, shall have charge of all the operations of the Bank.

For further particulars, apply at the Co's office 87 calle S. Martin (altos) between the h n and 11 — 4; prospectus given on application. n17

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUÁ & C°.

— No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —

BUENOS-AYRES.

The immenses advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great metropolitans of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their CONDITIONS.

1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.

2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [illegible] per annum which is liquidated every six months.

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rule established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

The shearing time being at hand, the inventor of the Anti-Scab Specific for curing Cutaneous Diseases in Sheep, and all domestic Animals, begs to inform the Estancieros that it can never be applied to such effect as after shearing, when it not only cures the worst cases, but acts as a preservative against the disease.

The Specific has been already found an effectual remedy for Insects (Garrapatas).

Numerous certificates may be seen, showing the high repute of the Specific throughout S. America. Its low price places it within the reach of all, $250, sufficing for 800 or 1000 Sheep. It contains no poisonous quality, and is sold at the above Depots.

AUGUSTUS POWEL, Master

ENGLISH GRAMMAR SCHOOL,

CALLE LARGA DE BARRACAS.

Gov.—Mr. Pongerard, of the London University College.

This Establishment, which from its foundation has been superintended by the principal British Seminaries of Buenos Ayres, is an exact representation of an English School, where a sound commercial education combined with the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages is imparted to the pupils, and based upon the same system as in all first class European institutions of that kind.

A very constant supervision, and a strict maintenance of order and propriety, are a sufficient guarantee to the morals and behaviour of the pupils are carefully attended to.

The different branches taught in the English Grammar School comprise the English, French and Spanish languages, Book-keeping, Calligraphy, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping in all its parts, Writing, and Religious instructions.

Extra languages, such as Latin, Mathematics, German, Music and Drawing are also taught by special masters.

The locality of the English Grammar School, in one of the most delightful Quarters of the Calle Larga de Barracas, at the very gates of the city, is one of the most healthful and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres.
